

Annual Business Law Update 2009 ©

Objective: This course will address significant court decisions from the past year that affect business entities, executives, and their owners. The carefully selected cases may establish new law, be controversial, or provide a good summary of established law. The facts, issues, and outcome of each case will be noted. More importantly, the focus will be on the lessons that can be learned from the reported cases. Suggestions will be provided as to how to avoid such problems.

Topics that may be covered include:

- The current “hot topics”
- Corporate governance
- Sale of securities by a private company
- Patents, trademarks, and copyrights
- Trade secrets
- Licensing of intellectual property
- Restrictive covenants
- Employment discrimination and other issues
- Creditors rights
- Piercing the corporate veil
- Unfair competition
- Shareholder disputes
- Real estate leases
- Business torts
